SEPTEMBER 2026

Strap in and prepare yourself for a jam packed month. Wall-to-wall, weekend-to-weekend Sudbury Indie Cinema will keep you distracted from the creeping cold and fading daylight.

The 4th ever Studio Ghibli North returns Friday September 11-13. Spirited Away, Howl's Moving Castle, Ponyo, and many more Award winning films and childhood classics are coming to the Indie. Transport yourself into the world of Studio Ghibli with this one-of-a-kind film festival with craft vendors, artisans, and food vendors. You also have the opportunity to gift this experience to a child with cancer through our partnership with NOFCC. You can learn all about how to buy these tickets as well as the amazing work NOFCC is doing on our webpage.

We have got an incredible line-up of special events throughout the month. Abya Yala is gearing up for its 2nd ever festival with a fundraiser featuring Latin American film and music, as well as a silent auction, September 18. The following day the Indie is off to college with a very special edition of the Cereal Cartoon Party screening at Thorneloe University. The paw-pular Cat Video Fest returns with its 2026 edition, come watch 80 minutes of fantastic felines. 10% of every ticket goes directly to Small Things CATS. Darlene Naponse's Aki returns to the Indie to close the month with a double feature for National Day for Truth and Reconciliation.

On the theatrical side the September starts strong with two films opening on the first Friday in the highly anticipated latest from Kiyoshi Kurosawa, The Samurai & The Prisoner followed by the deeply moving and haunting Gazan-focused documentary American Doctor. The tender and emotionally ruining French lesbian drama Julian graces the screen starting September 17. And finally The Weight, a tension-packed Ethan-Hawke-starring thriller, opens the following day.

We have something for everyone this month, you won't want to miss out!!

NEW THEATRICALS IN SEPTEMBER

THE SAMURAI AND THE PRISONER

(2026, Japan, Drama, 2 hrs 27 min,

Japanese with English Subtitles) | Directed By: Kiyoshi Kurosawa

When Lord Murashige Araki (Masahiro Motoki) rises up against the tyrannical Nobunaga Oda (Masaki Suda), he finds himself besieged within the walls of his own castle. Isolated, he is confronted with a series of mysterious crimes that shatter the fragile order of his court, plunging the fortress into fear and suspicion. With Oda's army closing in and a traitor hiding among his ranks, Murashige is forced into an uneasy alliance with Kanbei Kuroda (Masaki Suda), a brilliant yet dangerous strategist held prisoner in the dungeon. Helped by his wife Chiyoho (Yuriko Yoshitaka) and his most loyal generals, Murashige must uncover the truth before the castle falls.

AMERICAN DOCTOR

(2026, USA, Documentary, 1 hr 31 min.)

Directed By: Poh Si Teng

The film follows three American physicians— Palestinian, Jewish, and Zoroastrian—united by a single oath to save lives. After volunteering in besieged hospitals in Gaza, they return home determined to fight for the patients and colleagues they left behind, taking their battle from the front lines of war to the halls of Congress.

JULIAN

(2025, Belgium, Netherlands, Drama, 1 hr 31 min, French, English, and Dutch with English Subtitles)

Directed By: Cato Kusters

After an unexpected encounter, Fleur and Julian fall madly in love. Soon after Julian proposes, an ambitious, yet challenging idea starts to dawn on Fleur. Slowly but surely she works out a plan to get married in every country where she and her wife are allowed to do so. Fueled by their love and a rising sense of urgency, they take a leap of faith. After only four marriages, their journey comes to an inevitable, painful halt. a world of sex, obsession, power, betrayal, and murder.

THE WEIGHT

(2026, USA, Thriller, 1 hr 55 min.)

Directed By: Padraic McKinley

Starring: Ethan Hawke, Russell Crowe

In Oregon in 1933, Samuel Murphy is torn from his daughter and sent to a brutal work camp. Warden Clancy tempts him with early release if he smuggles gold through deadly wilderness, but betrayal festers within the crew, and Murphy questions how far he'll go to see his child again.
