OCTOBER 2026

BEWARE: Frights and world-class cinema lay ahead!!!! Our month is stocked with scares and stars alike, with equally robust theatrical and events slate.

October, theatrically is bookended by two of the year's most anticipated titles. Tony, the Anthony Bourdain biopic opens on the 2nd. Matt Johnson (Blackberry, Nirvana The Band The Show The Movie) directs an incredible cast including Antonio Banderas, Leo Woodall, and Dominic Sessa (returning to the Indie screening following The Holdovers two winters ago). Opening October 30th is Primetime, the 3rd of leg star Robert Pattinson's world-conquering four-film 2026. Pattinson portrays TV's Chris Hansen in Auteur-Documentarian Lance Oppenheim's (Some Kind of Heaven, You Can See Everything) narrative feature debut.

Also opening for us are two fantastic french features. Recently having opened at Cinefest and starring Louis Garrel (Scarlet, L'Innocent, Arco), the coming-of-age dramedy Juste une illusion begins its run on the 8th. And Black Zombie, the anticipated documentary unearthing the deep roots of Zombie fiction and its connection with Haitian slavery.

Thanksgiving weekend, while you're preparing an excellent meal, get some peace and quiet by sending your relatives our way. Saturday, the first of two Halloween Cereal Cartoon Party (October 10th and 24th), features 70s/80s/90s cartoons and an all you can eat cereal bar. That night the Addams Family arrives in style at the Indie with the 1993 classic Addams Family Values. Back by popular demand, we've got a 6-show encore run of Teenage Sex & Death at Camp Miasma. Mooncrater Theatre is back for 3 shows with the world's greatest shadowcast of The Rocky Horror Picture Show. And finally cancel your plans because you're not going to want to miss the special October 31st screening of John Carpenter's 1978 Halloween.

Come to the Indie Cinema only if you dare, muuaw-ha-ha-ha-ha!!!!
